

NJ STATE CONFERENCE OF THE NAACP

Celebrating Women in the NAACP: Past, Present & Future

2010 WOMAN OF EXCELLENCE AWARD

FIRST LADY NOMINATION FORM

HONORING STELLAR FIRST LADIES OF PROMINENT CHURCHES IN NJ

The New Jersey State Conference of the NAACP (NJSCNAACP) is celebrating its annual convention on Friday, September 17, 2010 through Sunday, September 19, 2010 at the Crowne Plaza Hotel, Cherry Hill, New Jersey. Our theme this year is “Celebrating Women in the NAACP: Past, Present & Future”.

The NJSCNAACP is committed to stellar leadership in all facets of civil and human rights, to advance a dialogue on a broad range of advocacy and social justice issues. The 2010 WOMAN OF EXCELLENCE AWARD – a symbol of stellar leadership achievement – is presented to First Ladies of prominent churches in New Jersey, who have accepted the call to enhance the leadership role of women, serve as an advocacy vehicle for issues affecting men, women and children, and share the NAACP’s mission.

The 2010 WOMAN OF EXCELLENCE AWARD honorees strive to set the example for leadership and responsibility – not just within their church setting but also in their community and the world around them. These Ladies foster a culture of leadership and integrity that supports the Senior Pastor of their church, their church initiatives and improves their quality of life as well as that of the community and society at large.

The 2010 WOMAN OF EXCELLENCE AWARD is an opportunity to honor the First Lady of your church. If your First Lady is committed to supporting and building generations of leaders while caring for the world around them and has successfully achieved these goals, then we look forward to receiving your nomination.
